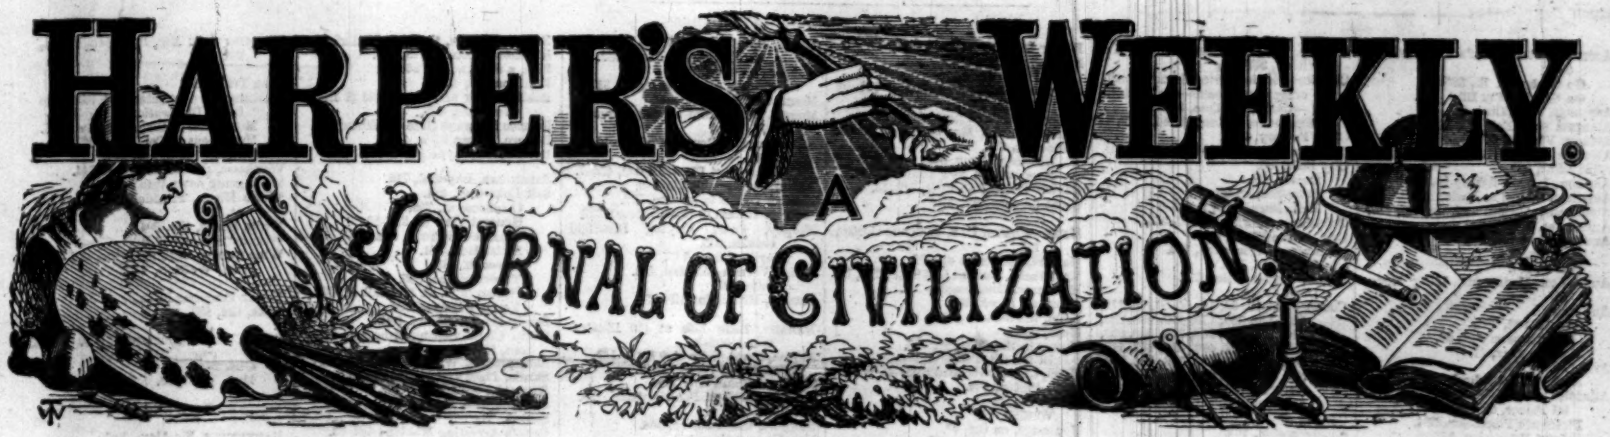
Wm. O. M. POE.

THE SECOND VOLUME

OF



THE YEAR 1858.

NEW YORK: HARPER & BROTHERS, PUBLISHERS,
FRANKLIN SQUARE.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has now been in existence two years. During that period no effort has been spared to make it the best possible Family Newspaper for the American People, and it is the belief of the Proprietors that no existing Periodical can compare with it.

Each Number of HARPER'S WEEKLY contains all the News and Gossip of the Week, Domestic and Foreign. The completeness of this department is, it is believed, unrivaled in any other weekly publication. Every noteworthy event is profusely and accurately illustrated at the time of its occurrence. The Laying of the Atlantic Telegraph, for instance, has been more elaborately illustrated in HARPER'S WEEKLY than in all the other newspapers in the world. And while no expense is spared to procure Original Illustrations—in proof of which the Proprietors would refer to the admirable pictures by DARLEY, HOPPIN, MCLENAN, and others, and to the illustrations of Utah and the Utah Expedition, the Chinese Squadron, the Paraguay Expedition, &c., &c., &c., which have been published in the present volume of the Weekly—care is taken to lay before the reader every foreign picture which appears to possess general interest. In a word, the Subscriber to HARPER'S WEEKLY may rely upon obtaining a Pictorial History of the times in which we live, compiled and illustrated in the most perfect and complete manner possible. It is believed that the Illustrated Biographies alone—of which about one hundred and ninety have already been published—are worth far more to the reader than the whole cost of his subscription.

The literary matter of HARPER'S WEEKLY is supplied by some of the ablest writers in the language. Every Number contains an instalment of a serial story by a first-class author—BULWER'S "What will he do with it?" has appeared entire in its columns; one or more short Stories, the best that can be purchased at home or abroad; the best Poetry of the day; instructive Essays on topics of general interest; Comments on the Events of the time, in the shape of Editorials and the Lounger's philosophic and amusing Gossip; searching but generous Literary Criticisms; a Chess Chronicle; and full and careful reports of the Money, Merchandise, and Produce Markets.

In fixing at so low a price as Five Cents the price of their paper, the Publishers were aware that nothing but an enormous sale could remunerate them. They are happy to say that the receipts have already realized their anticipations, and justify still further efforts to make HARPER'S WEEKLY an indispensable guest in every home throughout the country.
